

Anne-Marie Schmoltner, Ph.D.

Program Director

Division of Chemistry

Mathematical and Physical Sciences

NATIONAL SCIENCE FOUNDATION

2415 Eisenhower Ave., Alexandria, VA 22314, USA | www.nsf.gov

T: 703.292.4716 | F: 703.292.9037 | aschmolt@nsf.gov

For official information:
www.nsf.gov/grfp

For application assistance:
www.nsfgrfp.org

For application submission:
www.fastlane.nsf.gov/grfp

For questions:
info@nsfgrfp.org
or 1-866-NSF-GRFP

NATIONAL SCIENCE FOUNDATION GRADUATE RESEARCH FELLOWSHIP PROGRAM

Since 1952, the NSF GRFP has recognized and supported future leaders in the science, technology, engineering, and mathematics fields. Each year, NSF awards up to 2,000 fellowships to outstanding students in these fields.

FELLOWSHIP BENEFITS

MASTER'S AND PHD DEGREES IN STEM FIELDS

3 years of financial support over a 5-year fellowship period including:

- $34,000 annual stipend
- $12,000 cost of education allowance to the institution
- Professional development opportunities (GROW and GRIP)

DIVISION OF CHEMISTRY

<http://www.nsf.gov/chem>

REMINDER

Sign up to be a Reviewer or Panelists for NSF Division of Chemistry

Reviewer Interest Entry Form on Survey Monkey

<https://goo.gl/QerTli>

Save the Date:

Chemistry's
Faculty Early Career
Workshop
March 2018

SAVE THE DATE

Chemistry's 2018 Faculty Early Career Workshop

Monday, March 26th & Tuesday, March 27th

8:00 AM – 5:00 PM

E-mail All Questions To: CHE-18Career@nsf.gov